

Richard Suttle represents clients before state, county, and municipal bodies. His practice has involved the handling of land use and real estate development along with environmental issues related to the Endangered Species Act as it affects real estate development.

Richard is a member of the Travis County Bar.

Bar

Texas – 1982

Awards and Honors

