

Ms. Esteves practices corporate and securities law, including private company M&A transactions, private placement debt and equity financings, bank and mezzanine financings (including in connection with the acquisition, disposition and refinancing of commercial and multi-family real property), corporate formation and governance, and general commercial law.

Ms. Esteves received her J.D. from Duke University School of Law in 1999 and her B.A. from Pomona College in 1996.

Bar

New York – 2000

Texas – 2006

Education

Duke University School of Law - 1999 - J.D.

Honors: Corpus Juris Secundum Award for Scholastic Excellence in Contracts

Pomona College - International Relations - 1996 - B.A

Honors: Ahmanson Foundation Scholarship for Modern Language Study

Study Abroad: School for International Training Semester Abroad Program (Ecuador)