

Jordan Young focuses on general civil litigation, representing both plaintiffs and defendants in various areas, including construction, real estate, and other complex business litigation.

Representative Experience

Before moving to Austin in 2025, Jordan was an associate in the Washington, D.C. office of Kirkland & Ellis LLP from 2022-2025, where her experience included:

- Counseling an internet-based payment platform in an internal investigation
- Assisting in fact development for a large social media company in connection with congressional inquiries
- Representing an internet-based payment platform in an inquiry by the Consumer Financial Protection Bureau
- Representing a veteran before the Board for Correction of Naval Records
- Advising clients on complex cross-border transactions and international trade matters

Publications and Presentations

Mario Mancuso, Carrie Schroll, and Jordan Young (2022). Restricting exports of sensitive technology to China. Reuters.

Bar

Texas – 2025

Illinois – 2022

District of Columbia – 2022

Education

The University of Texas at Austin – 2022 – J.D.

University of North Texas – 2022 – MBA

University of Missouri – Columbia – 2019 – B.J., summa cum laude

University of Missouri – Columbia – 2019 – B.A., summa cum laude

Awards and Honors

2023 Capital Pro Bono Honor Roll, High Honors

Dean's Achievement Award for Transactions Course, Fall 2020

Texas Journal of Oil, Gas, and Energy Law, Staff Editor